

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

THIRD SESSION.

SENATE.

MONDAY, December 2, 1912.

The first Monday in December being the day prescribed by the Constitution of the United States for the annual meeting of Congress, the third session of the Sixty-second Congress commenced on this day.

The Senate assembled in its Chamber at the Capitol.

AUGUSTUS O. BACON, a Senator from the State of Georgia, took the chair as President pro tempore under the order of the Senate of August 17, 1912.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock noon.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in whose presence we now stand, we are come together in Thy name and to do Thy will. At the opening of this session of Congress we invoke Thy blessing. Without Thee we can do nothing. Until Thou dost bless us, our highest wisdom is but folly and our utmost strength but utter weakness. Bestow upon us, therefore, we humbly pray Thee, wisdom and strength from above, that so we may glorify Thee, accomplishing that which Thou givest us to do.

We come before Thee, our Father, with a deepened sense of our dependence upon Thee. Thou hast made us to know how frail we are. Thou hast showed us that the way of man is not in himself alone, and that it is not in us who walk to direct our steps. Thou hast called from his earthly labors Thy servant, the Vice President of our Nation. While we thought it was still day Thou didst cause the sun of his life to go down, bringing the night, when no man can work. We murmur not nor repine, our Father, knowing that alike the day and the night are Thine. Thou hast taken from our side fellow laborers and companions, leaving in this Senate empty seats and in our hearts loneliness and sorrow. We can not forget them, our Father, though in the flesh we behold their faces no more. Thou hast removed from his post of duty an officer of this body and hast made us to know that in the midst of life we are in death. Comfort our hearts, we beseech Thee, for all our sorrows, and keep us evermore in Thy love, and though Thou feed us with the bread of adversity and give us to drink of the water of affliction, yet take not from us Thy holy spirit.

We pray Thee to bless the President of the United States. Uphold him by Thy power, watch over him by Thy providence, guide him by Thy wisdom, and strengthen him with Thy heavenly grace. Bless him who shall preside over this Senate, bestowing upon him all things as shall seem good unto Thee. For all who are in authority we pray that they may serve Thee with singleness of purpose, for the good of this people and for Thy glory.

So, our Father, may this session of Congress, begun in Thy name, be continued in Thy fear and ended to Thine honor. Grant us so to labor that by our deliberations we may hasten the time when Thy kingdom shall come and Thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven.

In the name which is above every name, hear our prayer. Amen.

Mr. CULLOM submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 389), which was considered by unanimous consent and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled, and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore appointed as the committee Mr. CULLOM and Mr. MARTIN of Virginia.

HOOR OF MEETING TO-MORROW.

Mr. LODGE. I move that when the Senate adjourns to-day it be to meet to-morrow at 11 o'clock.
The motion was agreed to.

DEATH OF THE VICE PRESIDENT.

Mr. ROOT. Mr. President, with a deep sense of public loss and of personal bereavement I discharge the duty of announcing to the Senate that on the 30th day of October last, at his home in the city of Utica, JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN, the Vice President of the United States, departed this life.

His serene and cheerful temperament, inspired by love of country and of his kind, will no more diffuse through this body a sense of reasonableness, of friendliness, and of kindly consideration. His faculty of swift and just decision which has promoted and cleared the path of public business in the Senate for the three years which are past will no longer aid us in our deliberations.

I have the honor to offer the resolutions which I now send to the desk.

The resolutions (S. Res. 390) were read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and regret the announcement of the death of JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN, late Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. In connection with the announcement just made the Chair now lays before the Senate a cablegram received from the Brazilian Senate and the reply thereto, in order that the same may now be read and become a part of the record, and to be on a later day given such disposition as the Senate may direct.

The matter entire is as follows:

RIO DE JANEIRO, VIA DAKAR,
November 6, 1912.

SR. PRESIDENTE SENADO,
Senate, Washington.

Cumpro dever comunicar V. ex. que Senado Brasil sentido vivamente morte eminente Sr. JAMES SHERMAN, Vice Presidente dessa grande Republica, deliberou inserir acta seus trabalhos voto profundo pesar por esse doloroso acontecimento, e transmittir Senado Americano sinceras condolencias, o que em seu nome faco por intermedio V. ex. a quem apresento minhas attenciosas saudacoes.

FERREIRA CHAVES,
1º Secretario do Senado.

[Cablegram—Translation.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, VIA DAKAR,
November 6, 1912.

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
Washington:

I perform the duty of informing Your Excellency that the Senate of Brazil, keenly afflicted by the death of the eminent Mr. JAMES SHERMAN, Vice President of your great Republic, has voted to enter upon its journal a resolution of profound sympathy in that sorrowful event and to transmit to the American Senate sincere condolence, which I do in its name through Your Excellency, to whom I present my respectful salutations.

FERREIRA CHAVES,
First Secretary of the Senate.

[Cablegram.]

WASHINGTON, November 7, 1912.

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE BRAZILIAN SENATE:

I have received your very considerate and cordial message of sympathy, addressed to the American Senate, on the occasion of the death of the late Vice President JAMES SHERMAN.

The Senate of the United States is not now in session. So soon as it convenes in December I will have the honor to lay before that body your highly esteemed message. I beg, in the meantime, to thank your honorable body for its kindly consideration and sympathy.

AUGUSTUS O. BACON,

President of the Senate pro tempore.

[NOTE.—The foregoing reply to the cablegram of the Brazilian Senate was, upon the request of Senator BACON, cabled to the American ambassador at Brazil by the Acting Secretary of State, with directions for immediate delivery.]

DEATH OF SENATOR WELDON B. HEYBURN.

Mr. BORAH. Mr. President, it becomes my sad duty to announce to the Senate the death of my late colleague, Hon. W. B. HEYBURN. To those who witnessed his singular devotion to duty in the closing hours of the last session under conditions which all realized imperiled his life, the news of his death came as no surprise. One less determined to perform faithfully the obligations of his high office, one less mindful of the responsibilities which rest upon us here, would have yielded to the solicitation of friends and sought the rest and recuperation which he so much needed. But understanding perfectly the forfeit which he might be called upon to pay, he nevertheless met without hesitancy and with spirit and purpose the exacting duties of that trying session. With equal fortitude and courage he paid the forfeit when the time came to do so.

Senator HEYBURN was a remarkable man, a strong, sturdy, self-reliant, dominant figure. But this is not the time nor the appropriate occasion for extended remarks; upon some other occasion I shall ask the Senate to set aside a day upon which his colleagues may pay tribute to his work and worth as a man and as a legislator.

I offer the following resolutions and ask for their adoption.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Secretary will read the resolutions sent to the desk by the Senator from Idaho.

The resolutions (S. Res. 391) were read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. WELDON BRINTON HEYBURN, late a Senator from the State of Idaho.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the House of Representatives and to the family of the deceased.

DEATH OF SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER.

Mr. SMITH of Maryland. Mr. President, it is my melancholy duty to announce to my colleagues in the Senate that since our last adjournment death has claimed our loved associate, ISIDOR RAYNER. His death occurred at his home in Washington on the 25th of last November. His end followed an acute illness lasting several weeks. Watching with him during the period of progressing physical weakness and intense suffering were those he loved best—his wife, his son, and his grandchildren.

He was in a large sense a martyr to his sympathies, his conscience, and his talents. The ambition to do his fullest duty as a Member of this body spurred him to undertake tasks far beyond his physical capacity to stand, for his mental energy and power always outran his physical capacity. A quick, sensitive, and all-compelling sympathy for all who suffer, for all who bear burdens, however imposed, pained and wore upon him to his very soul, and deeper than I ever knew in any other case. He finally succumbed under the rack and strain. His tensely nervous temperament could not withstand the weight of others' woes added to his habit of overwork, accentuated toward the latter part of his life by obligations assumed at great risk, as he knew, to himself, and assumed in spite of the warnings and entreaties of his intimate friends.

I shall make no effort to-day to speak of Senator RAYNER's character or life nor of the qualities of mind and heart which elevated him to so many places of trust and fixed him in so many places of affectionate esteem. I shall only make the bare announcement of his decease.

I shall in due season ask the Senate to devote some future day to ceremonies befitting his memory. Then when time has somewhat cleared our finite sight we may review his life and character, not altogether in the darkness of our own present sense of personal calamity in his loss, but rather in the light of his everlasting gain.

Mr. President, I offer the resolutions which I send to the desk, and ask for their adoption.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Secretary will read the resolutions presented by the Senator from Maryland.

The resolutions (S. Res. 392) were read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow the announcement of the death of Hon. ISIDOR RAYNER, late a Senator from the State of Maryland.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Mr. CULLOM. Mr. President, I desire as a further mark of respect to offer the following resolution, and I ask for its present consideration.

The resolution (S. Res. 393) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the late Vice President JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN and the late Senators WELDON BRINTON HEYBURN and ISIDOR RAYNER, whose deaths have just been announced, the Senate do now adjourn.

Thereupon the Senate (at 12 o'clock and 22 minutes p. m.) adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 3, 1912, at 11 o'clock a. m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, December 2, 1912.

This being the day fixed by the Constitution for the annual meeting of the Congress of the United States, the House of Representatives of the Sixty-second Congress met in its Hall at 12 o'clock m. for its third session, and was called to order by the Speaker, Hon. CHAMP CLARK, a Representative from the State of Missouri.

The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., offered the following prayer:

God of the universe, Father of all souls, whose spirit divine pervades all space, the light of the world, the inspiration of men, source of all good, continue, we beseech Thee, Thy ministrations unto us as a people, that with patriotic zeal and religious fervor we may press forward to the higher altitudes contemplated by our fathers in a Government "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

That the full fruition of its genius may at last obtain to the betterment of mankind, so move upon the hearts of these Thy servants now convened to conclude the work of the Sixty-second Congress, that their efforts may be well pleasing in Thy sight.

Imbue with wisdom, strength, and courage the Speaker of this House, that he may preside over its deliberations with justice and equity, that its resolves and enactments may redound to the good of the millions here represented.

Inspire, bless, guide the President of these United States and his counselors, that the laws of the land may be faithfully executed and the affairs of State amicably adjusted in consonance with the ideals of righteousness, truth, and justice. Let Thy wisdom guide the judiciary in their high and holy calling, that justice may fulfill its perfect work. So may the people, with their servants in the coordinate branches of the Government, strive for the ideals in all that makes a nation great and glorious, that the dear Old Flag may float its stars and stripes in graceful folds over a land of peace and plenty now and evermore, in the spirit of the Prince of Peace. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the following memorandum:

The Clerk read as follows:

CLERK'S OFFICE,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, D. C., December 2, 1912.

HON. CHAMP CLARK,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DEAR SIR: The following certificates of election to the Sixty-second Congress have been received and filed:

Hon. ARCHIBALD C. HART, of the State of New Jersey, to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. William Hughes.

Hon. GEORGE C. SCOTT, of the State of Iowa, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Elbert H. Hubbard.

Hon. EDWIN A. MERRITT, Jr., of the State of New York, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. George R. Malby.

Respectfully,

SOUTH TRIMBLE,
Clerk of House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the credentials of the three Members referred to in this memorandum have been received, and that they are correct in every respect. Unless there be objection, the Chair will assume that unanimous consent is given to waive the reading of the credentials, and the Members elect will receive the oath of office.

MESSRS. MORGAN of Louisiana, HART of New Jersey, SCOTT of Iowa, and MERRITT of New York appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

A message from the Senate, by Mr. Crockett, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

In compliance with the foregoing resolution the President pro tempore appointed as said committee Mr. CULLOM and Mr. MARTIN of Virginia.

Also:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled, and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

NOTIFICATION OF THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. UNDERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

DEATH OF THE VICE PRESIDENT.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I announce to the House that JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN, Vice President of the United States, departed this life at his home in Utica, N. Y., on the 30th day of October, 1912.

The admirable administration of the high office which he held, the second in the gift of the Republic, his brilliant and useful career for so many years in the House of Representatives, his sympathetic touch with every class, the unsullied purity of his public and private life, had so impressed the country that his death occasioned expression of deep-felt grief so universal as to manifest a general and profound sense of national bereavement.

Congress will doubtless, by concurrent action of the two Houses, at an early moment set apart a time for proper expression touching the life, character, and services of this eminent citizen.

I move you, sir, that out of regard for his memory and the memory of the Members of this House and of the Senate who have departed this life since the adjournment of the last session of Congress this House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and accordingly (at 1 o'clock and 8 minutes p. m.) the House adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 3, 1912, at 12 o'clock noon.
